	Practical issues raised by members: (a) Where a company engage contractors to build property in their land, ITC is not claimable until the company is registered. No registration is allowed unless the company makes a taxable supply within 12 months. These will be a cost to business. ii. Rationale for not allowing ITC to be claimed on service incurred before GST registration is by virtue of the fact that the service has already been consumed. However, goods in hand or capitalised is claimable.
